

How to apply for a job in SIVUH

Thank you for your interest in working in the South Infirmary – Victoria University Hospital.

The South Infirmary-Victoria University Hospital is committed to providing the highest quality service to all our patients in a friendly, safe, and caring environment. We aim to provide individual patient centred care to each patient and their families. We have a total designated bed complement of 180 beds and cater for up to 39,000 admissions and 71,000 outpatient attendances each year; we employ approx 1000 healthcare workers.

SIVUH is the regional center for ENT, Dermatology, Elective Orthopaedic, Ophthalmology & Chronic Pain services and provides a significant role in the provision of Oncology, General Surgery, Rheumatology, Endocrinology, Plastic Surgery, Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, Elective Gynaecology, Radiology and Anesthesiology services. We facilitate an Emergency Department for Ophthalmology and ENT cases.

SIVUH is a teaching hospital and affiliated with the Medical, Nursing and Health & Social Care Professional disciplines in University College Cork and has developed key relationships in terms of training with many other educational sites both nationally and locally.

The SI-VUH is primarily an elective hospital with a particular concentration on day surgery, short length of stay and day of surgery admission. There are 11 theatres in total in the complex; 4 General Theatres, 2 Orthopaedic Theatres, 1 Day Surgery, 1 Theatre in the Victoria Wing, and 3 Ophthalmology Theatres. In addition, there is an Endoscopy Suite, Pain Management Procedure Rooms and a Minor Procedure Room.

The SI-VUH has an extensive Day Surgery service including a Peri-operative Assessment Clinic which is supported by SI-VUH Consultant Anaesthetist staff. In addition, there is a Pre-Admission Assessment Unit.
